Preface:

Yashwantrao Chavan Maharashtra Open University and Abhinav Institute of Technology & Management, Thane had entered in to mutually agreed agreement on 3rd July 2018.As per the terms of said agreement Diploma in Essential Skills, Diploma in Business Skills, Diploma in Industrial Skill which are conducted by Yashwantrao Chavan Maharashtra Open University will be conducted jointly with Abhinav Institute of Technology & Management, Thane under the 'Learn and earn' scheme.

Under 10th Five Year Planning ,the total review of the employment has been taken and policy is framed to give training to unskilled youths. Accordingly by giving skilled and technical base training 50 Crore manpower is to be created. Under the scheme of 'Skill Development Initiative ' the Directorate of technical Education has a major share and accordingly it is inevitable to participate the students already working in the industries or trainees being absorbed in the industries into the; skill Development and Skill Upgradation Programme'.For that Public Sector and Private Sector shall work on Partnership basis. Considering this fact, Learn and Earn Scheme is executed jointly by Yashwantrao Chavan Maharashtra Open University and Abhinav Institute of Technology & Management ,Thane . Through this scheme the deprived students in the State will be absorbed in the industry, by giving them 'on the job training', while they study. In this tenure they will be paid stipend. So these deprived students are going to be benefited by both, free skill education and stipend. The total expenditure of this scheme will be borne by the Industry as consumer. So there will be no financial burden on the government. As per Government Resolution dated 26th July 2010 same type of scheme has been executed in the state.

On this background ,the proposal of giving government assistance to the 'Learn and Earn Scheme which is to be run jointly by Yashwantrao Chavan Maharashtra Open University and Abhinav Institute of Technology & Management, Thane was under consideration .After giving complete thought to the said proposal ,the Government is declaring following decision.

Government Resolution:

1.To the students participated in the 'Learn and Earn Scheme,to be run jointly by Yashwantrao Chavan Maharashtra Open University and Abhinav Institute of Technology & Management, Thane for diploma level training.

2.To all the students participated in the 'Learn and Earn Scheme ' on the job training is given in the industries. After completion of this training they will get the Diploma certificate from Yashwantrao

Chavan Maharashtra Open University ,considering this fact ,these trainees ,on condition to strictly observe the provisions of 'Apprenticeship Act ,1961', shall be treated as 'Apprentice'.

3.The University shall take care that the tenure of training of these trainees shall not extend beyond two years. And these students shall be paid by the concern industry, minimum stipend as per provisions of Apprenticeship Act, 1961 . If industry desire to give more stipend they can offer the same.

4.The expenses of equipments ,books, and material etc and all other expenditure on training shall be borne by the industry, in which these students are obtaining training.

5.The all participating trainee students shall be insured and necessary arrangements shall be made in respect of the medical care.

6.The decision to participate in learn and earn scheme is totally depends on Industry. Industry can sign separate MoU with Abhinav Institute of Technology & Management ,Thane mentioning that Abhinav Institute of Technology & Management ,Thane & their staff member will promise good behavior.

7.The facilities offered by industry will be limited to duration of course conducted by Abhinav Institute of Technology & Management ,Thane under Yashwantrao Chavan Maharashtra Open University.
